“ Aunt June will be missed so much. I will miss our annual visits and our card games. We had so much fun!

I remember good times with John and Linda at their trailer in Rome. One memory that really sticks out is when John and I had poison ivy together. We also used to play school, John was the teacher and I was the student. It was a riot! I remember running around the dirt hills near their home and swinging from the Weeping Willow tree in their yard. The good ole days!
