“ You are very loved and unbearably missed. Thank you for entering my life and allowing me to be apart of your life for 4 1/2 years. I hope you dont mind me sharing these picture of you with the myself and your family.

We are all so very heartbroken.

Do you remember playing the game of life with us? Lol you won!!! I was bankrupt and Lily came in second. Well there is a picture as a reminder.

My sweet love, I am glad you are experiencing a peaceful mind. I love you forever.

“ Justin, what can I say. We always kept up because you worked in logistics and made plans to get together, but it took you getting sick for us to finally get to spend a day together. Now I did wreck my brand new truck in your front yard so that can always be a joke between us. War Eagle can always be what we shout when GA plays them since Randy converted me to a GA fan as I gotta stick to those roots, but I will always do it for you. You called me even when you felt your lowest and asked if I was okay because you were worried about me being sad. If that doesn't show your true loving and caring self I don't know what does. I love you brother more that you will ever know! Your mom has been my second mom since the day my parents left this earth and I wouldn't know how to survive without her, so don't worry about her or your dad. I will make sure they are taken care of until they're in your arms again. I love you dearly.
