“ For those who did not know my mother, I want you to know that Heaven is sweeter and her loss is more than words could ever express. There was not a kinder, sweeter, gentler, loving mother on the face of this earth. She loved as Christ loved, she gave whenever she could, and she lived a life well pleasing to her Lord. Oh, how I will miss my dear, precious mother.

“ Grandma thank you for showing me that God does exist. You are the best woman I have ever known. I will miss you dearly and I will carry you in my heart forever and I pray that my children grow up to be just like you. I know God is happy to have his Angel home and I know you are celebrating in Heaven. Thank you for all of your love, kindness, and understanding.

“ David the loss of a loved one is always hard to accept. We the members of the Disabled American Veterans are Praying the Lord to give you courage and strength for the days ahead. Always remember the wonderful gifts your Mother gave to you and your brothers. The smile that never failed to bring joy, the trinkle in her eye as she enjoyed life. May these memories bring you Peace. Your Brothers and Sisters of DAV Chapter 3.
