“ I'm going to miss you aunt Khaki. It's hard to think your gone, to not be able to hug you again, not to hear your voice again and not to see you again. I love you aunt Khaki, thank you for helping keep us on track with God over the years and thank you for everything you've done. I am honored to have been your Nephew, I wish I could attend your service to say goodbye one last time. Least I can when we move up there in a year or two. Kathy was the true definition of a kind and gentle soul. God knew she'd be the perfect addition to his beautiful garden.

“ There are times when there are too few words left to heal us and when what we wish for the most is to be carried... when all we have left is the hope that tomorrow will be a gentler place to land than today. Those we hold closest to our hearts never truly leave us. They live on in the kindness they have shared and the love they brought into the lives they touched. My deepest sympathy goes out to the family and may peace be with you. “Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand” (Isaiah 41:10).
