“ Kathy was such a loving and caring person. My heart aches for her family especially my friend Gerri. I remember Gerri sharing with me that Kathy always sent Gerri flowers on Kathy's birthday to thank her. She also took my cat, Tigger, in when I couldn't take him with me. May the good memories sustain all of her family and friends during this time of grief. Linda K

“ My heart aches for Kathy's family especially my friend Gerri. I remember how sweet Kathy was always sending flowers on her own birthday to her Mama to thank her. And taking in my cat Tigger when I couldn't take him with me. I pray that those kind of memories will sustain and comfort Gerri and Jim and Mark and her daughters and their families through this painful time. I love you. Linda K

“ Cathy was in our Small Group Bible Study. She was always sweet, had a kind heart and a lovely smile. She loved her family and had a soft spot for cats, even for the local stray cat. She was dedicated in all she did. She loved the Lord with all her heart and is now with Him. May God's peace be with Mark and the family at this very difficult time.

Kathy was a lovely woman who loved the Lord. She and her husband Mark attended my church, and we were in a small group together for the past few years until the group disbanded when the host couple retired and moved out of town.
