“ To Janice, Becky and all of Kathy’s special nieces and nephews. I know that you are going to miss Kathy as she loved all of you just as much as you loved her. I always knew that the Hannon sisters had a special love for each other, but after Kathy’s accident I saw that love grow even deeper. Kathy was such an amazing athlete and I don’t know of a sport she could not dominate. I had the pleasure of playing on a volleyball team with her and trust me, I definitely did not want to be on the opposite team. Matter of fact, no one wanted to be on the opposite side of the net when Kathy spiked the ball. Though she was an amazing athlete, she was even more an amazing person. Kathy was so smart, especially when it came to technology. She could figure out anything, and if not, just show her one time and she had it. I so enjoyed my time with her at work as well as outside of work. Kathy worked hard, but she also played hard. Whatever we did together, I knew it was going to be a fun time. After Kathy’s accident, I never heard her complain. You would think someone as active as she was would be the biggest complainer ever. I know I would have had many pity parties, but not Kathy. She still treasured life and not just hers, but yours as well. When you visited her, she would always want to know what you had been up to and how your family was. I found that when I would get down about something, I would think of Kathy and be reminded I had no right to ever be down or complain. I would then count my blessings which is what Kathy did. We may never know why Kathy had such a heavy cross to bear; however, I hope that what she had to endure was not in vain. I hope we all learned from Kathy to cherish life and to never take anything for granted. May we all find peace in knowing that the amazing athlete is back. I am sure that Kathy didn’t just walk down those golden streets, she ran down them as she didn’t want anyone to get to Jesus before her. Kathy, thanks for your inspiration, grace and friendship as you were truly a gift from God.

“ I remember, fondly, Kathy in the Texize/DowBrands days. She was always upbeat, a friend to all. I last saw her years ago at the Coach House with family and she still had a sweet smile. She was a strong person.
My deepest sympathy to the family.

“ I was saddened to learn of Kathy's passing. I had the pleasure of working with her back in the Texize days. She was a great person, hard working, cheerful, always willing to help, and well liked. We rejoice in knowing that she has gone to a far better place with no more pain, suffering, or sadness. And we hold on to the blessed truth that we will see her again in eternity.
