“ The things that come to mind today were like flashes of lights in seconds, minutes, hours, days, and years. Flowing like a cold spring of water over my mind's eye. The sorrow and pain washed over as a the promise of a new day in the sun. As they lay you to rest in your eternal Grace. Know that in the days to come we will heal and the love we feel for you is neverending. For you maybe out of sight but never out of mind we lock you in our hearts and place the keys of our memories, & love for you in your hands for some day we will meet again and you return the keys to all of our memories, and our love for you as you are there to greet us as you welcome us home through heaven's gates.

This poem I wrote for you Aunt Kathy Bagwell Tucker. I love you and I feel the loss of you greatly. I want to Thank you for everything you ever have done for me as a little girl and as the woman I am today. You always had advice wisdom, love, and kindness for me. Not only just for me but for my mother (Vickie L. Duncan) and for my sister and our children.

I will miss you dearly and I hope some day when it's my trun you are there as well as my own mother & father to usher me home. 🥺🥹

“ Kathy you rest now, you are the nicest person. I met you at Greer Hospital. You always made me laugh. You are a very supportive person. I wish I can taste one of your cakes one more time. Yes da bomb, Don't worry everyone has their eyes on your family with or without FB. You have a wonderful family that will. I'm going to miss you Kathy.

“ Kathy, you will be missed by so many people you were such a wonderful person. We always called each other sister at times you didn't see one without the other when we worked together went to school together you had a heart of gold now your heart of gold is in heaven, no more pain no more sorrow, I pray for your family and especially the boys. May God give them comfort and peace. Love you, Kathy and will miss you till we meet again.
