“Kathy was so beautiful, and my husband and I both shared a class at Chapman High with her. We three chatted every day in Driver's Ed/Study Hall. She was our Star Twirler in the Chapman "Band of Gold," and was so sweet and popular, but I don't think she realized it, because she was so humble. We shared a lot of laughter and she made that year of my life one of my favorites.

“Condolences to her family. Unfortunately we had not stayed in touch, but we were friends in school. I have fond memories of us sitting and talking on her screened porch. She was such a sweet person.
