“ Your journey on this earth is over and you rest in peace with your Savior. No more hills to climb or valleys to cross---so we'll miss seeing your smiling face and sharing in your joys and trials. Your memory is fresh on our minds- may it never fade. Even now as I struggle to write thank you's to the many who have shown great kindness and love; I think of how writing was so very difficult at times for you; yet the final product was often far superior to anything I could muster. I So much more can and will be said- til we meet at Jesus feet- Love, Mom##imported-begin##Debra Ann Brainard Johnson##imported-end##

“ Having just come out of the Grand Canyon and learning of indian lore that they believe they arise and depart from such a place of beauty makes us hope that Keith has found a home in his passing where his spirit shares such grandeur each and every day.##imported-begin##William Dale & Janet Johnson##imported-end##

“ I'm really sorry about Keith. It's hard to believe the little boy I knew is gone. I'm sorry I wasn't able to make it to the visitation but by the time I got off work I wouldn't have made it in time but I will be at the funeral today. If you need me please don't hesitate to call me. Audrey has my phone #. I love all of you and I am praying for you.##imported-begin##Bernice Atkins##imported-end##

“ Keith, my heart is absolutely broken. I am beyond grief. You were always welcome at our home. I loved seeing your sweet face and smile when you and Jameson would come home on the weekends from school. I thank God that I knew you because you made me a better person. You made our family better. You made the world better if you had only known that. We will never forget you. Heaven is a better place now because you're there. See you soon.
