“ Bro. Terpenning was a joy to be around in the few years that we were privileged to get to know him. He always enjoyed a good laugh and had a smile and a kind word! We often say that so much of his greatness will never truly be known. He was used much for the Lord, but never praised his own works. He let the Lord keep the record and we have no doubt that he has many crowns to cast at his Saviour's feet! Even during the days of his illness, the one constant that still remained in his life was church! So thankful for the years to get to know him and his family. Our prayers are with Mrs. Martha and the rest of the family. He will be missed, but so thankful for the precious memories that you carry continually in your hearts!

“ My dad was pretty serious to the majority of everybody, but he had his silly side. He used to do the best Elmer Fudd impersonations. There's one thing that he was serious about and that was the Lord. When we were children he was devoted to reading to us out of the Bible every morning and I will always appreciate this as I read my Bible still. He gave me a foundation on which to build my faith. Without my faith I do not know where I would be at today. Thank you Dad for being the best dad that you could be. I love you and I will see you when I get home. Till then know that I am doing the best I can and don't worry everything has a purpose.
