

Ken Jackson

July 6, 1946 - July 23, 2024

Kenneth Edwin Jackson, 78, passed away July 23, 2024, in Hardeeville, South Carolina.

A native of Spartanburg County, South Carolina, son of the late William Lewis and Eula Cooper Jackson, he was a retired information technology manager for Cryovac/Sealed Air Corporation and of the Baptist faith.

Some in the community also called him Bones. He was known for getting into mischief at Chapman High School (there's rumors that a 'possum was involved). He was a Ham Radio operator and loved building and flying model airplanes.

Surviving are his wife, Susan Driegert Jackson of the home; one son, Kevin Jackson (Haley) of Landrum, South Carolina; and four grandchildren.

Mr. Jackson was predeceased by six brothers and two sisters.

A private graveside service will be held.

Visitation will be held 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Friday, July 26, 2024, at The Wood Mortuary.

The family will be at their respective homes.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Jasper County RC Flyers, JCRC Club William Siegel, 224 Fort Howell Dr, Hilton Head Island, SC 29926.

Online condolences may be made to www.thewoodmortuary.com.

“ As this is late I felt I need to say goodbye to my good friend. The years we chatted online, and the occasional meetup to eat when he was in town will be missed. RIP bud, I will miss you.

“ My deepest condolences to the Jackson family. I spent many years talking to Ken on his IRC server. He was a very well educated man who helped me numerous times with any computer problems I came across. May he rest in peace.

“ Family, so sorry to hear of Kenneth's passing. I grew up across the road from him and family and went to school grades 1-12 with him. Remember all his "antics" in school. May God be near and bring you comfort in the days ahead.
