“ Jean, I last saw Ken about this time last year when we were at the closing dinner of the RMCB 24 Reunion. As witness, I think that you will agree that when me and Ken see each other there is no mistake that we are valued old friends. I was Ken's Hospital Corpsman in the Greenville Detachment and in the in Battalion 24. I met Ken 41 years ago and considered him a friend from day one. He was not a man that talked a lot, but when he did, it was worth listening to. I knew him to be a good soldier that I could count on to watch my back. My visual memory of him was in Georgia manning a 50 caliber machine gun. He was a kind hearted good natured man. I will miss him a lot !

I am so sorry for this great loss for all of you. Ken was in the US Navy Seabees with my husband A.L. who recently passed away too. He will be missed greatly but am happy that Ken and A.L. both are whole again and in Heaven walking on streets of Gold! May God comfort all of you as only He can. We loved both him and Jean...Praying for all of you.
