“ It is with a grateful heart that I reflect back upon the years spent at Sovereign Grace Bible Church and my Pastor Ken Orr. I loved his Sermons, they fed my soul. The best Lord's Days were spent eating one of Becky's delicious lunches. Pastor Orr tended his flock according to 1 Peter 5:2-4. I treasure this desk that I write upon. Pastor Orr left it behind for me when he moved. Laus Deo! Diane Wheeler

“ When Ken and Becky moved into our community, I knew they were special. I liked them from the start. With Ken's passing, I can visualize him walking through his mansion and in each room, he is saying wow, wow, Wow! Becky, thank you and Ken for choosing Pebble Springs as your home. We have been blessed.

“ Words cannot express how much I cherished the friendship of Ken and Becky Orr from the day they moved into our community. Ken was a remarkable, talented, kind, and supportive person. Becky gave incredible support and loving care to him during these past few years. It is a privilege knowing them as friends and neighbors. My love and deepest condolences are sent to Becky, the family and to his dear friends.

“ So many wonderful memories, it’s hard to pick one. Ken had extensive knowledge of sound theology and he always had a special word to share. He was very generous with his wonderful books and shared many of them with us. His quick wit was always entertaining. Loved his music collection.

“ Mr. Orr was a second father to me, with a sharp, somewhat sarcastic wit when dispensing advice, reminiscent of my own father.

I recall one particular evening when I as a teenager, was lamenting “girl troubles”. He (somewhat) gently reminded me that I wasn’t “all that”, and this particular girl would— in fact— not be the “last one ever”.

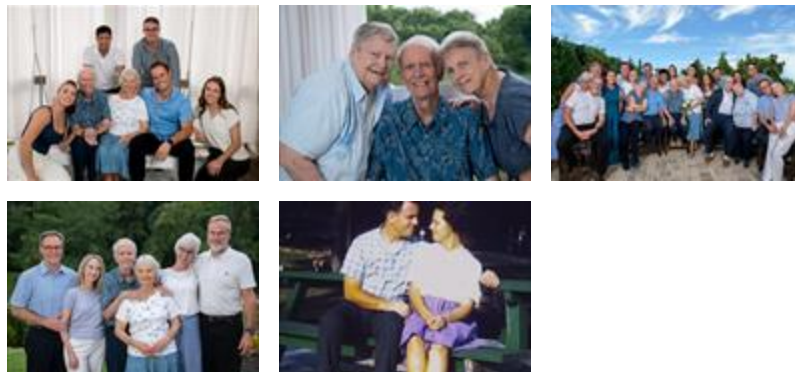

He was a man of conviction who knew what he believed and stood firm in that knowledge. He and Mrs. Orr raised two sons who have done the same (even if they are Eagles fans!) who I have been honored to have as friends for now more than 40 years.

May God give you comfort and peace, and a confident expectation of the soon-coming reunion.
