“ I met Ken my first year at Brooks Institute, Santa Barbara. I was focusing on commercial photography and Ken was taking film classes. I appreciated his dry sense of humor and when I asked him what he was planning beyond school he replied he wanted to be a game show host. We reconnected years later through FaceBook and I enjoyed seeing pictures of his girls and life in SC. We skyped one evening so I could introduce him to my husband Mike and we talked about investments, music and California. In January Ken responded to our business campaign on Instagram and I told him that I had seen his doppelganger in the LA airport but decided NO - this person was too old, my memories were of our college days. I was not a close friend but someone from 1988 to present who simply kept in touch through pictures and texting. I'm sad to not have been able to say goodbye.
May the memories you cherish comfort you in this time of sorrow.
