“When we have found the love of our life”. For some they don’t comprehend that connotation. What one doesn’t realize is the love of our life is gone on to Glory before us to wait on the side of the river to greet us when we get there. It is just for a short time we haven’t lost Ken forever we know we will see him again one day. For one day is just one day closer to be reunited again. Faye you & Ken have been a big part of our lives we will miss him dearly and love you very much... we will be praying for you in this your time of grief. Much Love Jerry, Shelly & Miss Faith Whitsel###imported-begin##The Whitsel Family###imported-end##

“ to the children and grandchildren, my deepest sympathy in the loss of your father and grandfather. I am sure each of you will miss him very much. try to focus on the good times you each shared over the years. To Faye,you will face a new challenge, alone, for the first time in your life. Even though your children and grandchildren are there, you will undoubtedly feel there is no one that understands what you are experiencing, there are however so many who have faced life's worst moments where friends abandoned them and you to will find the way thru this.##imported-begin##angelee pollard bradshaw##imported-end##
