“ Kenny was such a good person. He loved everyone and had a good spirit. Mine and my sisters bust stop used to be at kennys house. Everyday when we got of the bus we would walk up to his porch. He allways left the house door open so that we could see tthrough the screen door. He would be siting in his recliner waiting for us everday. He would allways send us home with a message for our grandma. Something along the lines of "Tell your grandma I said to get out of the house." We would laugh and say we will. He will always have a big place in my heart.
