“ My deepest heartfelt prayers are with each and every member of your family. I was so blessed to know Mr. Williams over the last 13 years. He was a welcomed guest in my office at State Farm. He was such a sweet and kind man who loved to talk about how much his family meant to him. I will miss our visits but look forward to seeing him again one day on the streets of gold.

Ryan, I can only imagine the loss you feel over your grandfather. He thought the world of you and we always talked about you when he was in. He kept me updated on your expanding family! I will continue to lift your family up in my prayers.##imported-begin##Heather Raines Streater##imported-end##

“ Dear Tony, Linda, Family, and Elaine,

My heart has been heavy for you. I know where your Dad etc. is today. He's with his Lord. My prayers have been with you. Just remember God is a very presnt help in times of trouble. I pray that he will walk beside each of you today as you lay your Dad to rest. I know this is one of the most difficult things you'll ever do, but remember God will be with you and comfort you.

*I went to church with Ken for many years. He was a wonderful man exhibiting the likes of Christ in every way. He was so gentle, so kind, but so strong. There was no question that he loved his God, and his family. I loved this man. I know that Ken Williams is with his Lord today. I will continue to pray for each of you. Love and Prayers,
Donna Pearson*

“ I had the honor and privilege of getting to know Ken and Elaine and Leslie over the past 2 years at OutBack steakhouse where I work. It was a joy to wait on them all. I especially enjoyed Ken's humor and kindness. He was such a loving and caring man, and even though this is a sad time for his family, I know how happy he was these last years. Happiness and love radiated from him to those around him. Now he will be watching over us all from heaven. I enjoyed teasing him and telling jokes and having meaningful conversations with him. He will be missed by all that knew him and loved him. I know he loved Elaine very much and was very happy she was in his life. May God watch over her and comfort her during this sad time, and give his children comfort during this hard time. I will miss him.##imported-begin##Sheila Ceremuga##imported-end##
