“ Dear Lee, I am so very sorry to read of the loss of Kevin last year. I well remember him at Kamiseya and in Bremerton. This is a heavy load for you and Donna.'
I must tell you that Hal died this March after living with the effects of a stroke for 13 years, He never lost his sense of humor and wit.

“ *Kim and Kelsey,
I just want you to know you are in my thoughts and prayers. I am so glad that I was able to meet you and hear about the wonderful father and husband Kevin had grown to be. I only knew Kevin as a young man. I think about you often. I know it must be so difficult. It is so obvious how close a family you are and how Kevin's family was everything to him.*

Sincerely,

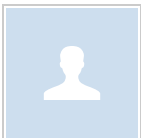

*Bob, Lisa, Mollie and Bobby Gleason##imported-begin##Lisa

“ WORDS. What are Words? Words cannot express how I feel over the lost of my son, Kevin. A man should be able to express his deepest feelings with the right words. I cannot. Perhpas true feelngs can never be put into words. I think, that this is so. For over three weeks I have searched for the words to use. I cannot find them, There are none. They do not exist. They never will. I can only say, " I LOVED HIM".##imported-begin##Lee Kohlhafer##imported-end##

“ Kim and Family,

Please know that you are constantly in my thoughts and prayers. I only met Kevin a couple of times, but I did joke with him on the phone a little and it seemed like I knew him through you. I know that he was a great guy and I cannot even begin to imagine the magnitude of your loss. I do believe however, that both God and Kevin are watching over you and will forever be with you. Please call if there is anything at all that I can do for you.##imported-begin##Marinda Stone##imported-end##
