“ Will not forget a loving, kind, always cheerful niece who - as she said she would do - after falling on her face before Jesus to worship, she is dancing around the throne!! I expect to dance with her soon!

“ One of earth's greatest treasures is to have someone who loves you. I believe we can say that of Kim--as a daughter who loves her mom, as a mother herself who loves her children, as a wife who loves her husband, as a grandmother who loves her grandchildren, as a friend who loves so many, as a niece who loves her aunts and uncles--and even as a future great grandmother who had those yet-to-be loved ones in her heart. I believe Kim loved me, her uncle. That is a precious treasure. Stan Stringer

“ I was so very sorry to hear of Kim's passing. We grew up just about 1/2 mile from each other. Her and my sister were the same age. Such a nice person! Always smiling when you came to get your gas bottles filled. She will be greatly missed. Prayers and love to her Mom, children, family and friends from all the Peace family. RIP old friend

“ Kim. You were such an amazing momma not only Mike and Allison but to myself and Scott and every friend of your kids. You were such an awesome Moomaw to your 5 grandkids and I know you would've been awesome w your only great grandbaby. You were such a strong and loving woman who fought your heart out. We will all miss you more than ever. You have touched so many lives. Rest easy Momma! We love you!
