“ I am a friend and co-worker of Lisa Bishop and have been praying for your family during Kim's illness. Lisa informed me of Kim' passing over the weekend and I wanted you to know that even though you don't know me, I am continuing to remember your family during difficult time. I know that you, your sons, and Kim's mother were a great source of comfort to her. You were a very devoted family and that speaks well for all of you. Her sweet memory will live on for all of you.##imported-begin##Ann Dobson##imported-end##

“ *Paul,
We were very troubled to hear that Kim was not in good health and shocked that she was in her final days. Thank you for the call to update us. I know that we are supposed to celebrate these transitions, but I would prefer to celebrate with both of you. Know that we are thinking and praying for you and the Boys. “Dear Paul, Nathan, Daniel, and David,
We are so sorry to hear of you're loss. Kim was a wonderful person and great wife & mom. She was a great neighbor as well. We enjoyed living next to you guys many years ago. We were so sorry to hear Kim had been sick and for you're loss. She was such a sweet and kind person. I will never forget the bread she use to bake and bring over and give us. She was always thinking of others. We will be praying for all of you.##imported-begin##Julie Knighton-Shuford ##imported-end##
