“ To the Runion family, please accept my deepest sympathies on your loss. No words express the difficulty of coping with death although I pray the promise God gives in the scriptures strengthen you through this ordeal. . . .And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Rev 21; 4

“ Mrs. Steadman and families, I hate to hear of Kristy's passing. It's hard to believe that I watched her grow into the beautiful young lady she was. I always loved your family and took pride in taking care of y'all. You are special. May you feel God's love, prescence and grace during this difficult time.

Love,
