

Kusumavati Kutte

April 19, 1943 - August 23, 2024

Kusumavati Kutte, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother and matriarch, passed away peacefully surrounded by her adored family on August 23, 2024, at the age of 81. Born in Bagalkot, India, Kusumavati was currently residing in Taylors, SC.

Kusumavati was known for her love of cooking, jewelry, stock trading, and socializing with family and friends. She had a passion for pop music, old Indian romance movies, shopping, and happy hour with her loved ones. Kusumavati also enjoyed traveling to new places and staying young by spending quality time with her grandchildren.

Kusumavati is survived by her husband, Chandrakant Kutte; her son, Winston Kutte (Cheree) of Charlotte, NC; her daughters, Seema McGarity (Dean) of Simpsonville, SC, and Reshma Kutte (Mary) of Palm Beach Gardens, FL; her four grandchildren, Chandon McGarity, Naveen Kutte, Naia Kutte, and Mira McGarity; her nephew, Vrushab Hese (Veena) of Bagalkot, India; and great two nephews Alok Hese and Achal Hese.

She is predeceased by her father, B.G. Hese; her mother, Padmavati Hese; her sister, Sundamma Padmarajappa Rokhade; and her brother, Jinendrakumar Bhramappa Hese.

In lieu of a funeral service, the family requests that any condolences be sent to 216 Millstone Way, Simpsonville, SC 29681.
