“ We are so sorry for your loss. When we think of Chris we think of many years ago when Donnie was taking the boy scouts camping and Chris was among several who were riding in the back of that old pick up truck. It had a cover..but the boys were chewing tobacco and spitting out the back. Donnie ask them to stop spitting out the back because it was going all over the back of the truck. Well, yungins that they were..they continued to chew and spit. LOL....so he got out..closed the back door (this was before the days of seatbelts and such) and dared them to spit INSIDE his truck... there were some little guys who couldn't wait to get to their destination to get rid of some chew! That was a very fun camping trip and many good memories were made. This was just one I wanted to share. We treasure those good ole days!!!! Time and responsibilities take us all in different directions, but it is good to remember. Rest in peace , Chris....thank you for the memories!!! Mr. & Mrs. Cox

“ Chris was my cousin and 1 of my very first friends in this world. My fondest memory as a child had to be spending time at Nanny and Papa's house and playing for hours. Hanging upside down from the clothes line poles. I'm sure there is a picture somewhere. The times I did get to see him was always a joy. I loved him like a brother. He was my bud. We talked almost weekly. He had the biggest heart in the world and would do anything for anybody. You will be missed my brother. I love love love you! RIP, Donna Burch Gardner

“ Dear Sandra, I just don't have the words to say to you in the loss of Chris. I always loved to talk with him. I always cried when I saw him because he reminds me of Alan, and he knew that. So, he just hugged me tight and let me cry. The last time I talked with him he was doing good and looked good. That is how I want to remember Chris. Just know I have you in my prayers and thoughts and I love you. I love Chris and even though I didn't see him a lot I will miss him, his smiles ,laughs and hugs. I know he is in Heaven and does not have to fight and struggle anymore. With love to all of you,
Denise

Dear Sandra, thinking of you and your family during this time, May God give you all the peace that passes all understanding. The last time I saw Chris he was with you at the Dollar General around Christmas time and he gave me a big hug, I had not seen him in a long time. He was smiling and happy. I will always remember him smiling. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, much love to you all.
