“ Larry’s friendship was a constant in my life—a bond built through decades of shared experiences, loyalty, and joy for 58 years. Many people aren’t allowed to live that long, I was blessed to have a friend that I was extremely close to for that period of time. Larry was a blessing to me. I will carry these memories in my heart forever.

“ I did not personally know Larry, but I feel like I did because of all the wonderful stories Sharon told about him. I always was so happy that Sharon had a loving husband who loved his wife and child so much. Sharon and Victoria, we care about you and know you are missing him terribly. I know this is so hard. I do know the Lord is going to be with you and never leave or forsake you.
