“Laura Williams called me,well actually her mom did. She said can you go pick Laura Jean up from myrtle Beach and bring her home. I said sure I will what happened to her ride. Well she couldn't remember what room her party was in. So off I go, when I got down there she was smiling and telling me how everyone treated her good. They was feeding her and buying her drinks. I picked her up and brought her back home. That was a good memory, even tho she got left at the beach,she still looked at all the good. That's my girl. I love and miss you Laura. Friends till the end, you said. R.I.P.

“Laura I think about you a lot,everyday. I never thought I not see you tomorrow now today. You sure was a big part of my life. Because there's a empty space where you were. God only let us borrow you, and on thanks giving day, he needed you back. I have so many good memories of you n I. We will meet again one day, and I know it will be as beautiful as you imagined. I been finding pennies from Heaven. Sent from a love one above. I love and miss you my sister.

“ When I think back of all the 25yrs since we 1st met, I laugh now at how we'd argue and fuss then hug and make up. You brought joy into not only Alan's life but our whole families lives. YOU and Christian and Courtney made our family whole!! All the yrs of our kids growing up together and the memories I have I'll hold close to my heart as I have for these past yrs since we grew apart. I want you to know I never gave up on you and I NEVER stopped loving you as a sister. I just had to love you at a distance. I know you're with the angels and your spirit is at peace now. Just know I'm here for the girls and your gkids for you and until I see ya again enjoy the the beauty that surrounds you now. It was a hard journey for you so rest. I love you. “ Laura what do I say,I miss you so much. You my side kick,my left arm,I knows you're in heaven and I hope it's as beautiful as you said it would be. Remember Myrtle Beach,girl we had a blast. And Scooter did also.We got room service everyday twice a day and didn't have to ask or pay extra. Laura this last year you became a more wiser woman,you wanted to be at home with your mom,and kids, that's grown and your beautiful grand children. I feel you close to me now, I hope you stay this close. I miss you something terrible. You're a beautiful person and have a giant heart of gold. When you love you give it your all.God only made one of you because your special,you touched a lot of lives, especially mine. R.I.P. my dear friend. I Love You
