*Thank you Judy and LouAnn. I am so glad that you both were able to join us remotely. My Mom loved both of you very much. Mom and Dad were so happy when Judy and Robert came to see them recently. They talked about the fun they had with you over and over, again. We all talked about how much we miss you LouAnn. Thank you for all you meant to my sweet Mom.

“ LaVerle was always busy in the background helping and serving the Times Examiner staff and guests. Several times I joined the Staff on days when the newspaper had to be folded. I was a candidate moving around the state of South Carolina, and I enjoyed our conservative points of view. We had pleasant and rapid exchanges for the purpose of saving the state and nation, especially in the education arena. I know that she will welcome me, when it is my turn to "cross the dimensional divide"...and who knows? Maybe there is a newspaper in heaven that needs some help with the weekly folding process? To her family I send my deepest sympathy. Sincerely, Reb Sutherland, Aiken, SC

“ I just found out that LaVerle left us and my heart is broken. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. Her unforgettable smile and cheerful demeanor welcomed everyone who entered the doors of the Times Examiner. Her contribution to the effort to bring truth to the American people about the effort to destroy our country is greatly appreciated. I salute her and Bob for their courage to speak the truth in the face of evil.

“ Bob, being friends with you and LaVerle and sharing some adventures together these many years has truly been one of the highlights of my life. LaVerle is someone special, as nobody knows as well as you. And I do say "is," for she lives still, and where she is, we, too, shall be someday. LaVerle's words of wisdom and encouragement now fit in as well there as they always did here on this earth, and I'm sure there will be many who join us there partly because of the ministry of encouragement that LaVerle is so well known for. God bless and encourage you in this time.

“ To my friend, Bob Dill and family: My poor words can do little to ease the pain of your loss of LaVerle, a truly great lady and my friend. Her smile and greeting each Tuesday afternoon for many years, as I and the other volunteers gathered at the office of The Times Examiner to help get it prepared and sent out, will be remembered by me as long as memory lasts. May God comfort all of you and may you relive and share all of the good memories of LaVerle. Grief lasts but a season, but joy comes in the morning when all who are Christians will meet again in God's Paradise.
