

Leah Lurey

October 2, 1918 - December 30, 2015

Leah Sarah Iseman Lurey, 97, widow of Ralph Lurey, died December 30, 2015 at her home.

A native of Little Rock, South Carolina, daughter of the late Leon and Ethel Robinson Iseman, she was a homemaker and a member of Beth Israel Synagogue.

Surviving are two daughters, Marsha Strong of Greenville and Barby Irby (Buddy) of Orlando, Florida; two grandchildren, Jordan and Austin; and a sister-in-law, Anna Lurey of Greenville.

Graveside services will be held 2:00 p.m. Sunday at Beth Israel Cemetery, conducted by Rabbi Jeremy Master and Dr. Fred Leffert.

Visitation will be held after the service at the cemetery.

The families are at their respective homes.

A special thanks to her caregivers, Kay Brank and Peggie Powell.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Greenville Humane Society, 305 Airport Road, Greenville, SC 29607.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

“ *Marsha,
The last Time I spoke with you, you were very concerned about your mother. I am so sorry that she passed. I can tell that you were a very good daughter to her, so remember that as you grieve.*

I'll see you at Merovan.

“ So sorry for your loss. Leah was a favorite patient of mine when I worked with Dr. Milas. She always brought us some kind of delicious cake she had made and she always had such a kind word and big smile for everyone! God bless you.

“ It was a pleasure to know Mrs. Lurey. She was a very sweet lady who loved others and did for others. she made cakes for me and made special trips to see me. I enjoyed visits with her and her babies whom she loved so much and treated like family. She was very dear to my heart and I loved her so much.

“ Mrs. Lurey,

I was so honored to have the pleasure of knowing you. I remember coming to your house with mom and visiting with you and Bitzy. You had one of the biggest hearts I know and you will forever hold a special place in mine.

Marsha,

I am so sorry for your loss. You had such a sweet mother who was like a grandmother to me. She always remembered me in such special times in my life. I know heaven has become a bit brighter because of her presence. I will miss her very much and am so thankful that she was a part of my life.

Love,

Amberly
