“ She served the Lord for many years as an English Instructor at North Greenville for very little pay. She was well respected and loved by her students.

“ Dear Family We are saddened with the passing of my favorite Aunt. She was a wonderful woman who devoted her life to helping others. Aunt Ethel told me of her experiences in Africa as a missionary. She taught me to play dominoes and was a loving and wonderful role model for me. We will all miss her very much. Jenny Guest Blackburn and family.

“ When I was a little girl, I remember the WMU group my mother was in was called the Ethel Guest Circle. She told me it was named after a missionary. Her work for the Lord lives on today in memories and changed lives. My prayers are with you during this time.
