“ I have known Leon, most all my life. My dad, Carlie Campbell, always had Leon do his mechanic work, so when I started driving, Leon did my work. He was always smiling, and you could depend on his work. Joyce and family, my condolences.

“ We were heartbroken to hear the sad news. Mr. Strange was one of the finest men I've had the pleasure to meet. Truly the kind that is in short supply these days. What a great example he has set for his children and grandchildren. What a blessing to know that even now he is wrapped in our Savior's arms. We are praying for your comfort as God heals your hearts and replaces grief with only happy memories.

“ He was a Precious Friend. My Sister, Teresa Hughey and I always looked forward to seeing Him come in on Wednesday evenings at Highlands Baptist Church to pick up his dinner and desserts from us. He always had a cheerful word, and I know He is in Heaven at His Father's side tonight.
