“ Dear Crawford family,
I am sorry to hear of the recent death of your dear loved one. I send the family my deepest sympathy.
During difficult times like this, we may wonder who we can turn to for comfort. The Bible can help us in this regard. The scripture at 2 Corinthians 1:3-4 describes God as being the Father of tender mercies and the God of ALL comfort. So at times such as this, we can turn to God in prayer and he will comfort us, strengthen us and empower us to overcome whatever obstacles come our way.
The scriptures make it clear that it was not God's original purpose for humans to die. We die because our first parents, Adam and Eve disobeyed God. But lovingly God has given us a chance to gain back what our first parents lost.
God has promised to reunite families together again by means of a resurrection.(John 5:28-29)(Acts 24:15)
When Jesus Christ was here on the earth, he showed that he has the power to bring the dead back to life. On one occasion, he resurrected his friend Lazarus.(john 11:11-44)
This miracle assures us that he will perform this same miracle for our close friends and family members who have fallen asleep in death.
Here are some additional scriptures that you may also find comforting: Revelation 21:3-4, Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19###imported-begin###Sandra###imported-end###
