Tribute Wall

“ Our prayer and thoughts are with the family in the passing on of Leroy. Just know that Leroy is in heaven with our Lord and Savior, Leroy has been healed for all of eternity. While Leroy is rejoicing with all of the Saints, we here on this mortal earth will truly miss Leroy, he was a devoted father, husband, friend and an example of how a child of God should conduct oneself while witnessing to others. Leroy will be missed, may the Lord lift up your spirit and bring you peace in the days ahead as we all grieve the loss of our friend. We want the family to know that if in any way we can help in the days ahead just call upon us. We love each and everyone of your family. Sincerely Ken Hart Jr. and family.##imported-begin##Ken Hart ##imported-end##

“ Having recently lost my own father, I know the hole that has been left in your hearts and lives. However, I also know the comfort that only comes from the assurance God gives us in His Word that Leroy is now in Glory with God His Heavenly Father!
I have never met a kinder, gentler man. His godly character shown through everytime we met. I pray that Leroy's godly testimony will continue at the funeral service and for many years to follow!##imported-begin##Mike Miller##imported-end##
