“ So sorry to hear about Mrs. Moore's death. I have fond memories of visiting with her when I occasionally delivered milk. She was always so welcoming and friendly. I also remember that she very kindly let me interview her at length for a nursing school project. She was a fine person and will be missed. May the Lord comfort all of you in this time.##imported-begin##Gwen Forrester##imported-end##

“ To the Family,
Thank you for allowing us to come into your home and take care of Mrs. Moore. You love on us as if we was part of your family and for that I thank you with all my heart. I was planning on coming tonight (Monday) but duty call me in a different direction but know my thoughts are with all of you during this time. I've prayed strength for all of you. Donna take care and don't forget the Chicken noodle soup your going to make for ALL of US. Smile##imported-begin##Denise##imported-end##

“ Donna, Teresa, Landis and families,

I was sorry to hear of Mrs. Moore's passing but I am rejoicing that she is now in heaven. What a wonderful example of a great neighbor she was! I remember when my husband died in 2000 she and J.P. were right there to offer what help they could. I did not see her often but every time I did she was so warm and friendly. Now when I pass by her home I will feel like the world is a little emptier, but heaven is surely richer now that Lettie Mae has gone home. My prayers are with you all.
