“ Your father certainly had a large piece of our hearts! What a wonderful man! A heart of gold! He was there for us sometimes when No one else was. We will always miss him and always love him. I loved that grin that would come across his face when he was just messin' with ya. I loved to come home and see him waiting in my driveway. He would come in and get comfy...just before he napped or ate dinner with us. He was a good good man. And a good Christian man. He is exactly where he's wanted to be for a few years now...in heaven and with your mother. My continued prayers for your comfort. You know my number and I'll always be here if you need anything.
Our thoughts are with you.
