“ To The Dixon Family:
Coping with the loss of a dearly beloved member of your family is a hurt only God can heal. Please lean upon him now and trust in his will. Our Heavenly Father, Jehovah has promised he will swallow up death forever and it will be a condition soon forgotten.-Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4 My the memories of Mr. Dixon comfort you during this time of sorrow. Sincerely yours, A Neighbor of NC One of Jehovah's Witnesses##imported-begin##Angela##imported-end##

“ I am deeply sadden to learn that my friend Lewis passed away. I have so many fond memories of our many years at the Highway Patrol. I will always remember the many times I rode with him when he was working the third shift back in the 70's. Of all the troopers I had the opportunity to know and dispatch for during my 25 years at the Patrol, I can truthfully say that Lewis was always one of my favorites. I would run across him very frequently in the mornings the last couple of years at Taylors Drug or the Post Office and always enjoyed talking with him. Jean and Patricia you have my deepest sympathy in your loss. I wish you both peaceful moments, renewed strength and hope for tomorrow with each passing day. May God bless you.
