“ No... I wont wait til Christmas this time.
Two weeks ago the world lost one of its best Soldier Boys: Lewis Kelly. I was really glad I had a good visit with him prior to his death. His health was failing but he was still determined to be a good host. We didn't talk much, but I sat there and remembered the times I visited in Nannie's house over the last ten years or so. I especially recalled my fateful visit there in January of 2008! MOST MEMORABLE (Clyde can tell you so as well.)
I will remember Lewis for his wry smile, his appreciation for family and friends, and his devotion to God and Country. Farewell Soldier. May we meet again Sir.

“ I spent lots of time talking to Lewis at Greer Athletic Club when I should have been working out, but I did love his stories and sense of humor.
