“ After getting off a shift in the woods at Second Nature, everyone was packing up and heading home. Working there was very challenging and I often found myself trying to get out of there as fast as I could. One day, I was sneaking out, probably didn't even say bye to anyone. As I was pulling out of the parking lot, I look in my rear view mirror and Liam's dog was chasing my car, barking. I laughed and kept driving, and the dog continued to follow me down the road!! It was the strangest thing. I stopped, by this time we were far from Liam or anyone else, and his dog just stood by my driver seat door barking. I didnt know what to do. I just was like, "Ok." I put the dog in my car and drove him back to Liam. Liam laughed and turned to Eric and told him his dog just followed me. In some weird way, it felt like the dog and even Liam too sensed me trying to escape without being noticed. The look on Liam's face was like he was proud of his dog's awareness. It was like he was thinking to himself, good boy. Way to get her.
