“ Dearest Cousin Ligia (Lillie),
I will relive this wonderful night seeing Sting with you in Taos over and over again! We all had so much fun. You are forever an inspiration for living your best life and being a kind, loving, free spirit. I wish we could of had more time together as I have always adored you & enjoyed your company so much. Heaven gained the most beautiful, sincere angel. Watch over us all. May your spirit continue to be free and your soul at peace. Until we meet again. We love you so very much. ~Your Taos Family

“ My Cousin Lillie Justice, was a vibrant light and wonderfully free spirit. From the moment we met, we were kindred spirits, and would always be close. I don't think I ever thought of her as a cousin, but more as an older sister I could always be myself with, and have fun adventures with. We had plans for after COVID, we had plans for when we were in our 90s. The Universe had other plans.

She was an awesome Mother, Wife, Sister, Daughter, Cousin, and Friend. She loved to look at the Positive, to dream of Peace. She loved Aerosmith and Steven Tyler, her Wonder Dog Logan, New Foods and Recipes, Her Family, Her Husband Phillip , her Son Jordan, and Stood up for the Underdogs, for the Misunderstood, and for the LGBTQ Community. We watched shows and discussed characters, storylines and how it applied today. Our mutual favorite was Brian Kinney (Gale Harold) from QAF. She loved Science and Art, Nikola Tesla and Van Gogh. She loved to Entertain and Host events.

I can go on and on about her, however, I decided to focus my energy on a tribute video which is posted on the media wall of this page. It took a little time, but I believe that it represents Lillie properly. Please watch and hopefully, you'll get a glimpse of the piece of my heart, known as Lillie (or Ligia) that I am already missing so much. We love you, Lillie. Be At Peace Now. ❤️🙏🕯️

“ I had the wonderful opportunity to be at Phillip and Lillies wedding anniversary celebration a few years back. So glad that we were are part of it. Great family and great love that evening. Over the years I have enjoyed being in the company of this loving couple. She loved her husband and spending time with him. I saw this first hand several times and shared their live of music and fellowship. Rest easy dear Lillie. Your love will last way past your lifetime.

“ I had the privilege of being at Lillie and Phillips wedding. It was an amazing day and we even had some uninvited guests at the park, they were 6 geese who honked triumphantly as they walked past the ceremony. Love you Lillie; John and I will miss your ever smiling face. Go rest high on that mountain your work on earth is done.

“ Lillie joined our public corporation in Miami as a young girl. It didn't take long before everyone was aware of her outstanding capabilities and great work ethic, which resulted in a promotion as Assistant to the C.F.O. and Office Manager. Executives from other divisions also sought her assistance when dealing with complicated projects. Lillie always cheerfully made time to help anyone that needed her.

We were co-workers and became very close friends for more than 30 years. She was always mature beyond her years, definitely an old soul. Her zest for learning, nature, travel, adventure, music, art, entertaining, family, and being a great friend was amazing.

She especially loved crafting with her mother, also collecting Van Gogh art. Lillie was also quite the little rocker, a big Aerosmith fan. One time she even wangled her way to volunteer in a beer tent in the hopes of meeting Steven Tyler. It worked, and even he was quite taken with our spunky little Lillie!

When she became a mother, Jordan was her top priority. Lillie sacrificed everything making certain that he had the best that she could provide. She was so proud of her little person and the man that he became.

It wasn't until Lillie met Phil that she found happiness and true love. She was so thrilled to be spending her life with her "wahito and best human being she ever met". A couple truly devoted to each other. She was also so very grateful for her life in S.C. with Lidia and Mom. The little cottages were also her enjoyment, even though they required so much work, she loved them.

This is a time of such deep sorrow for so many of us trying accept and to understand this, trying to say good bye.
At this time we are all broken and lost. I do know that somehow our

“ Nancy and I are heartbroken, devastated and in deep shock over the sudden and unexpected death of my youngest cousin, Ligia (Lillie) Justice. Ligia was a beautiful person, inside and out. She was smart, inquisitive, curious about everything, so she was always reading and searching for answers. She was happy, cheerful, generous, loving, adventurous, a gentle and free soul. She loved her son Jordan, her mom Lydia, her sisters Lucia and Lidia, her niece Sabrina. And, she loved her husband, Phillip Justice, the love of her life. They were a perfect couple, soulmates, made for each other. She loved all her family and we all adored her and her young spirit. She and Nancy would get on the phone and talk for hours about cooking, recipes, family, Alex and Mikayla, life in Taos, and so much more. We feel like a piece of our hearts has been ripped out. We miss her already but she will always live on in our hearts and our memories of happy times together. May God Bless your soul, sweet cousin Ligia Justice, and may you rest in peace.💔🙏🙏
