“ Linda was & will always be the best friend I have ever had.. She and I go back to when we were 13 years old.. She was more than just a friend she was my sister in life, she will always mean more to me than I can say. I love her wonderful family as I love my on and I pray that they will be strong and let God take over and that they will be able to get through this very hard time. Linda is with God I have no doubt, she will be missed. All my sympathies with her family and friends. Ann Thompson Young
