“ Nana, I can not believe it's been 5 years since you've been gone. I miss you terribly. It's very hard to believe the things that have changed in the last five years. But thank you for looking out for our family and I through this time.

Andrea will be 3 this June, Also you would be happy to know that, when I show her your picture, She knows it's Nana. It makes me smile every time. I can't say it's gotten any easier, but I won't be selfish, because you are happier than ever. Great Nana and Great Papa are with you again, that's all they ever wanted, was to see you again, just tell them "Hi" for me. Also tell Papa Barry, Great Papa Rubino, Aunt Cat, Aunt Francis and anyone I have forgot to mention that left us "Hi" as well. I WILL see you again and that keeps me humble. Just know that I miss you more than ever, as time goes by. I try not to say "Good-Bye" anymore, I've had enough of that, So that being said, "I'll See Ya Later Nana"!!! ;) I LOVE YOU, Andrew

“ Mom, Hard to believe two years have passed since you went home. Gina is so right, it hasn't gotten any easier. Especially when I drive by your street. We all miss you so much. I am doing the best I can to take care of Nana and Papa, they find it hard to get through each day without you. We all hold on to the hope of knowing we will one day all be together again. Andrew's post was so hard to read without crying. As little Andrea grows up she will hear such wonderful stories about you. On your birthday/mother's day I will be doing the service at church and will speak about the legacy you have left here and all the hearts you have touched. I love you and miss you and look forward to you welcoming me home...##imported-begin##Your Son##imported-end##

“ Nana, It has been 2 years and 19 days since you have been gone, hard to believe. I just turned 20 and just came to the conclusion that I never thought I would become a 20 year old without you here. I hope you are doing great in heaven, I know you are. I now work for Pepsi and finally have a job I love. I learned from you that you just have to enjoy life because, you only get one. What has been killing me the most is that you will never get to see, or shall I say I will never get to see your reaction when you see, your first great granddaughter, Andrea. She is due June 19, 2011. Please Nana help to make sure she is very healthy, I know you will. I love you with all my heart. I always will. I will never understand why you left us so soon, but I guess that is just life, unfortunetaly. I will see you again one day, and I believe that is what keeps me so strong. I love YOU and I will never forget you and the things you taught me. Thank You for everything. You acomplished more in the 17 years I knew you than I probably will in my whole life. I miss and love you. Love, Andrew###imported-begin###Andrew Rubino###imported-end##

“ My heart is heavy with the loss of my dear friend of many years. So many times we laughed until we cried, now I cry to laugh again with her. Beautiful woman, gentle soul, never ever to be forgotton. My true pleasure to be able to see her once more with her last journey to Ohio. Gina and Carl John, I pray for you both during this painful time.

“ Dear Gina:

I don't know if you remember me, but I worked with your Mom at Spectrum Sports, Twinsburg. I was deepend saddened and shocked to hear of her death. I did not know she was sick.

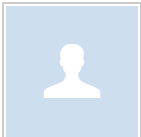

I will always remember Linda --she was such a cheerful person and so much fun to be around. I have many wonderful memeories of her and will keep them close to my heart.

My prayers go out to you and your family during this most difficult time and I will keep Linda in my prayers allways.

You have my deepest sympathy, Gina.
