“ Linda was a sweet Christian lady who became my friend the first time I met her. Although I only knew her for a short time, I will remember her for a long time. It is comforting to know that she is now well again in her heavenly home.

“ My prayers and sympathy for Linda's family. She and I were classmates at Greer High School and graduated together in 1960. She was a very sweet, pleasant lady and was always likeable and friendly.

“ *Jack, I am sadden to learn of Linda's passing. She and I shared the same birth date, shared high school classes, and rode the school bus together. I saw her last when Merle passed away and it was as if our friendship was still as fresh as it was during high school days. Linda was a Christian woman of strong faith, devoted to her family and friends - I loved her as my friend! May God wrap you in His mercy and grace during this difficult time to give you peace as you face the coming time without Linda's presence. She is in a new body in Heaven with God walking the streets of gold with her birth family rejoicing together. May God bless you for being a special friend to Linda in her times of need. Sent with my love and prayers,
