“ Ronnie, I was so very sorry to hear of Linda Sue's death. She was a very special person to a lot of people. Just looking at her face, I can hear her voice chatting away about something or other. I have so many fond memories of her, like how she would tease my dad and at some times, our grandfather EC Hayes, just to make them smile. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

*Your cousin,
Cathy Hayes Holliday.*

“ So sorry to hear of Linda's passing. Just a few weeks ago, I visited at her home for an electrical job. We had a lively and engaging chat, as usual. Not only was she a faithful customer for many years but a trusted friend as well. I'll never forget her patting me on the shoulder as I left. Linda was a firecracker for sure and heaven just got more lively. Prayers to the family.

“ (Aunt) Linda treated me like I was her real niece. I looked to her like she was my real Aunt. She was always there for me through life. She was so good to my mother and Aunt Addie when I worked and she helped me with them. She was a Great Christian and we shared our prayers together. She also knew how to make me laugh when I needed that, also. I will miss her and all our telephone chats but I know she is with Jesus, celebrating with all our other Loved Ones there and I know for sure, I will see her again for our Great Reunion one day. Prayers for Ronnie, Bobbie Joe, Ted and all the other family. I Love You.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Linda Sue’s passing. She was always so sweet when she would come to the nursing home to see granny. Haven’t seen her in a few years but always think of all of you when I think of granny. Y’all are in my thoughts and prayers. Love y’all!

“ What an awesome aunt she was! She actually was my great aunt but it didn’t matter, she loved me like a granddaughter. She was always doing for and thinking of others, mostly before herself. She lived her years, traveling, loving, spending time with family and friends. She never met a stranger and made lifetime friends while traveling around the world. She loved to talk, especially on the phone and when she called, you’d better have at least an hour to spend. She was a strong, independent Christian lady who I’m proud to say she told me many times how much she admired me for the same reasons, as she saw herself in me. Life won’t be the same without her loud, funny voice, quirky gifts, but mostly knowing she was always there for me, no matter the circumstances. I know she is flying high, celebrating with all her loved ones in Heaven. I have no doubt I’ll see her again. Until then, I will continue to try to make her proud.

“ Candy and I met Linda on a New England, Canada and Nova Scotia tour in 2008; we bestowed upon her the nickname "Little Mama", and she's been our Little Mama since then. We also gained a "Little Brother" in Ronnie. From trips to visit me in San Antonio, to trips to Charleston and Hilton Head, phone calls and visits, we grew closer over the years. We were blessed to have had Little Mama in our lives, and will miss her dearly.
