“ One of my fondest memories of Uncle Ray was when I first met him. He had just started "courting"(his words) my Aunt Joan. The two of them were like giddy teenagers. They sat on the couch and held hands the entire time before leaving for their date at the movies. But he was so friendly and warm and answered all my questions during my "interrogation" . There have been so many memories since then and my heart breaks knowing I won't have anymore. But I will never forget the ones I was fortunate enough to make/have. We were very lucky to have him in our lives. Forever missed but never forgotten. We ate at the Golden Corral tonight in his honor because last summer he was in heaven when we all went to eat there. The man knew what he liked! God bless everyone. I love you all. Aunt Joan, Trish, Bailey, Jeff, Patrick, Raymond, Emilee and Stella Rae. And Uncle Ray I know Jesus will treat you well!

“ Papa Ray will never know the impact he had on mine and my sisters lives. Being a kid coming out of a divorce is hard but having people you just meet take you into their arms with love means so much. I'm so thankful for the years I was blessed to spend with him and all the stories and jokes I was able to hear! I will forever love him.
