“Lo” was my college roommate and my maid-of-honor. She always had a quiet, calm, supportive and loving way about her. Truly lived her faith through her love. We had so many fun times and some sad ones too - but her trust in God never wavered. I thank God for letting me meet, know and love her - she truly blessed my life - and just as the charm with the small humble flower on it that she gave me for my charm bracelet back when we were young and carefree says, “forget-me-not, Lois”... Believe me - YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN MY DEAR SWEET LOIS - I WILL LOVE AND REMEMBER YOU ALWAYS & FOREVER - YOU WILL ALWAYS BE IN MY HEART💕

Also - wanted to share a new memory from Saturday morning, as I was having my coffee and crying while thinking about “Lo”, I was given a gift - I heard her sweet calm and loving voice speak in my heart and my mind - I believe to help console, reassure and encourage me as she so readily always had, say; “Dar - it’s so beautiful here”... Wow - it came outa nowhere, and yet “so Lois”, to be letting me know that “she is there, and yet still here with us also” - we who believe all “know” it intellectually, yet to get that wonderful consolation of the invisible truth of our spiritual life/soul, I am so profoundly touched and thankful🙏🙏🙏💕

“ My condolences to this wonderful family. Lois and I were cousins living together in Carroll, Iowa. Our mothers (Rita & Sally) were sisters. We had many "play dates" and "sleepovers." I have fond memories of being kids together . . .sharing time together with my dear cousin.
