“ Aunt Lois will be missed much by those of us who loved her and enjoyed spending time with her. Thank God that those of us who have made our call and election sure, have taken Jesus as our Lord and Savior, have the hope and promise that we will meet again with Aunt Lois, Uncle Tom, DiAnne Scruggs Owens, Bud, Lula, Hester, Bill Burrell, my parents Rev. George J. Mitchell and Ruth Ellen Bates Mitchell, my Grandparents James D. Bates and Maude Irene Cox Bates, Aunt Codella Thompson Daugherty, Armond Stewart and Lucille Burrell Stewart, Ethel Pittman, Leon and Annie Mae Pittman, Grandma Scruggs, Mack and Jane Pittman, Ann Pittman, and so many friends and loved ones, but the best part is yet to come when we meet Jesus face to face and thank him for his love, mercy and shedding his blood on the cross of Calvary so that we could have salvation. It must be a shouting time in Heaven, along with the late Evangelist Billy Kelly. Earth's loss is Heaven's gain. Jim Owens, Lois' only grandson, has been the light of her life since he was born. Jim, thanks for being my wonderful and great brother and for showing such great love and compassion in the care of your Grandmother. We both have so many fun and happy memories of adventures with Aunt Lois, my mother and us on Friday and Saturday nights, as well as trips to Gatlinburg, Myrtle Beach, and driving in search of snow.....I can see a big beautiful smile on Aunt Lois' face as she wonders what we will get into next....good, clean, Christian fun. May God comfort each family member and friend, providing love, mercy and grace for each hour and day ahead. Jesus never fails. Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever. My Brother, Jim, I will always be here for you as we continue on our journey through life.

Love, prayers and concern,

Tonya Sabrina Mitchell
