“ Andy -

I got home late last night (Friday) from Fuji. When I sat down to read the paper, I was very sad to find Lois' name in the obituaries. If I had known earlier, I would have been at her funeral. I only met Lois personally on one occasion but spoke with by phone may times. She was a loving and gracious lady who made a difference to all she touched. I am sad for your loss. Your lives were so intertwined that it was hard to separate one from the other.

You are a strong man, Andy West, and God will see you through this just s he has since the day you were born. Life is only beginning for Lois in a beautiful new world where Jesus walks everyday. I have always held you in highest regard as a professional and as a person. May God continue to bless you!

Soon, I will call and let's do lunch or dinner. It is time to catch up!

“Lois was a giving person giving of the labor of her hands with the wonderful canning she did. Also, giving in her love, care, and concern for her family, friends, and acquaintances.

Though it is a time of sorrow for Andy and family, there is joy in heaven over this one who knew and loves the LORD she is with in heaven. No more pain and no more sorrow for Lois. We pray for the peace of God that passes all understanding for Andy and family.

In Christ,
