“ Yes, this is Christmas. However, there's another family spending the Holidays without their most important member. In this case it's Loretta Kelly and this eulogy is in honor of Lewis and his 3 kids. You might say that Loretta was just another American Mom ("Momma" as she was called.) Maybe she wasn't exactly perfect, but just "close enough to perfect" as a well-known song says. All I can say now is that I wish I had learned more about her while she was alive.

I once "told" Loretta that her most important gift to me was one of her children, but I'm sure others could cite different such "gifts". My favorite memory of her from my youth was "helping" her with a fresh batch of green beans. A more recent favorite memory is watching her admire a floral arrangement with pink roses. I now know that Autumn-like yellow/orange would've been a better color for her. I really don't even know her favorite ice-cream, but I think I know who I can ask about that.

Thanks for just being YOU Loretta. I know you will always be deeply loved and missed. Merry Christmas wherever you are.

“ Mr. Kelly, Sharon, Scott, Donna and families, we are saddened to hear of Loretta's passing. She played an important part and developed so many young children and the ones that got to know her. Growing up in our small home town church with your family and also having her at Greer Middle School, I have many fond memories. The soft spoken gentleness she showed and smile she shared, you could see and feel her love. May you find comfort in God's grace, presence and love and strength from your family and friends. Will keep you in our familys prayers. You've always and will always be a special family to our family, Love, Rudy and JoAnn Ashmore Allison Ashmore Kellum and Angie Ashmore Kruse
