“ Oh, Lord have mercy Loretta...I cannot believe you are gone. I loved you like a sister. I will miss you so much. I know you are in a better place, but I guess I am selfish: I still want you to be here. Now you and Dean are together forever with the Lord. Marty and I had a star named for you both. It is in the constellation Pegasus, "The Winged Horse". All our love and heart felt sympathy to your family. Marty and I miss you and Dean. Love you both, Wanda and Marty Swain###imported-begin##Wanda and Marty Swain###imported-end##

“ Dear Bruce family,
I am sorry to read of the recent death of Loretta. I send my heartfelt condolences to the family.
Losing a beloved family member is never easy. We may go through a variety of feelings such as: anger, sadness, and grief. Please remember, these feelings are normal. Even if others do not always understand the way we feel, please be assured that our Heavenly Father ALWAYS understands how we feel.
There is probably no amount of words or cards that can ease the pain of what the family is going through. But the hope from the scriptures can greatly comfort us.
The Bible at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 calls God "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort."
So no matter what we are going through, our Heavenly Father can give us the comfort we need.
The Bible promises us that God through his son Jesus Christ, he will resurrect those whom he wants to back from the dead.(John 5:28-29)(Acts 24:15)
When Jesus was here on the earth, he showed that he had the power to bring the dead back to life. On one occasion, he resurrected his friend Lazarus.(John 11:11-44)
We can be sure that Jesus can and will do the same for our dear loved ones who have died.
I hope that these few words bring the family comfort and hope.##imported-begin##sandra##imported-end##
