“ Louie was a great American, served his Country as a Marine and the City of Miami as an outstanding Firefighter. It was an honor to have worked alongside him and a delight to have been subject to his many practical jokes. Always a positive spirited, good hearted man willing to help out wherever needed. God bless Louie Peeples!

“ I first met Louie when I was assigned to Sta. 1B (a.k.a. "Animal House") of the Miami Fire Department. Of all the pranksters at "Animal House" it was no doubt that Louie was the best. It was hard to "catch him in the act" of a prank. Louie was always great to be around. He made us laugh, even when we were having a bad day. He was a good man and a good firefighter. He will be missed. R.I.P Louie. (Roy Martinez)

There are just not enough words to express what a wonderful, Godly and caring man Louie was. His smile and kind eyes were always such a comfort to so many. Louie was a man that lived out his faith well. He was humble yet so generous to so many.

He so loved his family.

When Bob died Louie stepped in checking on me and we had great conversations remembering the "good old days". My daughters loved when Mr. Louie checked in on them too.

I will miss you Louie but am so grateful for the memories and knowing you are with your Lord and Savior (and Bob)
