“ Louis was a very kind man who certainly knew his way around a hammer & nails!! He was not only a master carpenter but a friend to everyone, always ready to help-out whenever and wherever needed! He will definitely be missed but is enjoying the ultimate prize he lived everyday for. He is with his heavenly Father now and all the friends and family that went before him. Please give my dad a huge hug for me Louis when you see him.

“ Louis was a very kind hearted and talented carpenter. He built the room on the end of our house that was dedicated to the Lord's service. If there was a way to build something, he could figure it out. He was faithful to his church and loved being an usher. He was a very himble man and would leave us watermelons on our back porch. He was a true friend to many. Prayers for all of his family
