“ My Momma My Best Friend. I will miss our long talks on the phone our girls time just doing whatever we wanted. You were the Best Momma in the whole wide world. I Loved your warm hugs. I never thought this day would come that you wouldn't be here anymore. It's more than I can bear at times. I know your in Heaven. I like to think of what was your first reaction was when you saw The Face of Our Jesus ! Did you dance ? Did you sing his Praises? Did you shout for Joy ? Or did you fall on your knees ? I can only imagine. But this I know your Happy you can see your no longer in pain an you can walk. One day Momma I will join you an we will Praise God together again. I Love You My Pretty Momma a Bushel an a Peck.

“ Louise was my second Mom.. Louise was the best mom anyone could have she was so loved and still is. I will always remember our talks, our crying, our love. She was always there for me she was always there for everyone....She loved her family and she loved all her children...I will always remember the time's we went out to eat, our rides, our talks, and cherish the time we set on the porch.

“ She was a sweet flower in a world with many weeds. A Godly woman after God's own heart. She gave everything she had for her children; giving love in so many ways. My precious mother who taught me about God, who taught me patience, perseverance, love, compassion. I am me because of her. Forever and always in my heart mama.
